prayer

1: Our Father

The _____ you received does not make you _____, so that you live in _____ again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your _____. And by him we cry, "_____."

Romans 8:15

The function of prayer is not to _____, but rather to _____ the nature of _____.

- Søren Kierkegaard

Do you agree or disagree with Kierkegaard? Why?

2: Realignment

Why does Jesus teach us to realign with God first?

חִיּוּ the Hebrew word for _____ to _____, rehearse in one's _____, or _____

Other names for meditation:

May my _____ be _____ to him, as I _____ in the LORD.

Psalm 104:34

3: Stomach & Soul

Why would God want us to see Him as our ultimate provider?

We know that we are _____, and that the _____ is under the _____ of the evil one.

1 John 5:19

What should prayer for other people be like?

4: In Jesus' Name, Amen

God will either give us _____, or give us _____ if we knew _____.

- Tim Keller

How does Keller's quote shape the way you think about prayer?

God demonstrates _____ for us in this: While we were still _____, Christ died for us.

Romans 5:8
